- b. For that part of the declared value which does exceed basic carrier liability, a charge of CAD$10.00 shall be payable per declaration.

If the passenger makes such a declaration and pays the supplementary charge, the carrier will be liable to pay a sum not exceeding the amount of the declared value, unless it proves that the amount of the declared value is greater than the passenger's actual value.

The passenger may declare a value in excess of basic carrier liability for the checked baggage to a maximum total liability of CAD$3,000.00, including basic carrier liability.

- (b) The carrier will not accept fragile, valuable or perishable articles including money, jewelry, cameras, video and electronic equipment, silverware, negotiable instruments, business documents, samples, medications, paintings, antiques, furs, manuscripts or similar items in checked baggage or when otherwise placed in the care of the carrier. Unless otherwise specified, a valuable will be deemed any item whose value is $1,000, or more, per kilogram or $1.00 per gram.
- (c) Carrier shall not be liable for the destruction, loss, damage, or delay in delivery of any property which is not acceptable for transportation in accordance with subparagraph (b) above or for any other loss or damage of whatever nature resulting from any such loss or damage or from the transportation of such property, including damage or delay of unsuitably or inadequately packed items, to the extent that the destruction, loss or damage resulted from the inherent defect, quality or vice of the baggage, or, in case of delay, that the carrier, its agents, and servants took all measures that could reasonably be required to avoid the damage or that it was impossible to take such measures. This exclusion is applicable whether the non acceptable property is included in the passenger's checked baggage with or without knowledge of the carrier.
- (d) The limitations of liability of the carrier set out above in this Rule 9 will be waived for substantiated claims involving the loss, damage or delay in delivery of mobility aids when such items have been accepted into the care of the carrier as checked baggage or otherwise, but subject to the limitations, terms and conditions set out in the last paragraph of this Rule 9.
- (e) In no case shall the carrier's liability exceed the actual loss of the passenger excluding indirect, incidental and consequential damages. All claims are subject to proof of amount of loss.

Advance seat selections are not guaranteed (for example, a seat may become unserviceable; a seat may become unavailable due to operating load or weight and balancing considerations; or there may be a change in equipment rendering the pre-selected seat unavailable). If the passenger has paid a fee for advance seat selection and the Carrier cannot provide the seat selected by the passenger, that fee will be refunded to the passenger. The Carrier will nonetheless attempt to accommodate the passenger with a comparable seat.

RULE 13. CANCELLATION

- (1) For travel within Canada, "Flexible" fares shall be non-refundable and subject to a $50.00 change/cancellation charge per direction per passenger, plus the difference in fare, except where the passenger requests a change at the airport on the date of travel, in which case no change charge shall apply.

For travel within Canada, "Firm" fares shall be non-refundable and subject to a $75.00 change/cancellation charge per direction per passenger, plus the difference in fare.

For travel originating or terminating in the United States, "Firm" and "Flexible" fares shall be non-refundable and subject to a $200.00 CAD/USD change/cancellation charge per person, plus the difference in fare. The change/cancellation charge may be used to change one or more segments on the reservation.

If a fare is cancelled, the Carrier shall provide the passenger with a credit, valid for one year from the original ticket issuance date, towards the provision of a fare relating to a future flight, which credit shall be equal to the amount paid for the original fare which was cancelled (including applicable fees, charges and taxes), less the change/ cancellation charge (including applicable taxes), if applicable. When redeeming the credit toward a future booking, passenger may apply the credit toward the base fare, airlines surcharges, change fees, and government taxes and fees. Credit can be used one time only. If the total cost of the transaction to which the credit is applied is less than the value of the credit, the residual value left from its use is forfeited. - (3) the fares of passengers who fail to show up for the flight to which the fare relates and do not otherwise cancel their reservation or change their reservation by the end of the day of such flight, shall be non-refundable and non-creditable towards future flights;
- (4) notwithstanding the above, the Carrier reserves the right to waive, in whole or part, the payment by any passenger of a cancellation fee or a change fee.

(j) Carrier Cancellation, Change and Refund Terms

- (a) If the passenger's journey is interrupted due to overbooking, a flight cancellation or an advancement of a flight's scheduled departure by more than the minimum period for the passenger to check in pursuant to Rule 20 of this Tariff (each a "Schedule Irregularity"), the Carrier will offer the passenger the choice of accepting one or more of the following remedial choices:
 - i. alternative transportation, within a reasonable time and without additional charge, to the passenger's intended destination;
 - ii. return transportation to the passenger's point of origin within a reasonable time and without additional charge; and
 - iii. a refund of the fare paid by the passenger for each unused segment, and, subject to Rule 14(j)(c) below, for segments already flown if they no longer serve the purpose for which the passenger undertook such travel;

- (b) In defining the remedy or remedies appropriate in each case arising under Rule 14(j)(b) above, the Carrier:
- i. will consider, to the extent they are known to the Carrier, the transportation needs of the passenger and/or other relevant circumstances of the passenger affected by the Schedule Irregularity;
 - ii. will not limit itself to considering its own services or the services of carriers with which it has interline or code-sharing agreements; and
 - iii. will make a good faith effort to fairly recognize, and appropriately mitigate, the impact of the Schedule Irregularity upon the passenger.
- (c) If the Carrier demonstrates that (1) the Schedule Irregularity occurred for reasons beyond its control, and (2) it took all reasonable measures to avoid the Schedule Irregularity or it was impossible for the Carrier to take such measures, then the Carrier shall not be required to refund passengers for segments already travelled, regardless of whether they serve the purpose for which the passenger undertook such travel.
- (d) The rights of a passenger against the Carrier in the event of overbooking and cancellation is, in most cases of international carriage, governed by the Montreal Convention. Article 19 of that Convention provides that an air carrier is liable for damage caused by delay in the carriage of passengers and goods unless it proves that it took all reasonable measures to avoid the damage or that it was impossible for it to take such measures. There are some exceptional cases of international carriage in which the rights of passengers are not governed by an international convention. In such cases, only a court of competent jurisdiction can determine which system of laws must be consulted to determine what those rights are.

RULE 15A. INTERLINE BAGGAGE ACCEPTANCEDefinitions

"Airline Designator Code" means an identification code comprised of two-characters which is used for commercial and traffic purposes such as reservations, schedules, timetables, ticketing, tariffs and airport display systems. Airline designators are assigned by IATA. When this code appears on a ticket, it reflects the carrier that is marketing the flight, which might be different from the carrier operating the flight.

"Baggage Rules" means the conditions associated with the acceptance of baggage, services incidental to the transportation of baggage, allowances and all related charges.

Carrier Definitions (Various)

"Down Line Carrier" means any carrier, other than the Selecting Carrier, who is identified as providing interline transportation to the passenger by virtue of the passenger's ticket.

"Interline agreement" means an agreement between two or more carriers to co-ordinate the transportation of passengers and their baggage from the flight of one air carrier to the flight of another air carrier (through to the next point of stopover).

"Interline itinerary" means all flights reflected on a single ticket involving multiple air carriers, the origin or ultimate ticketed destination of which is a point in Canada. Only travel on a single ticket is subject to this Rule provided the origin or the ultimate ticketed destination is a point in Canada.

"Interline travel" means travel involving multiple air carriers listed on a single ticket that is purchased via a single transaction.

"Marketing Carrier" means the carrier that sells a flight under its code.

"Most Significant Carrier (MSC)" is determined by a methodology, established by IATA (Resolution 302), which establishes, for each portion of a passenger's itinerary where baggage is checked through to a new stopover point, which carrier will be performing the most significant part of the service. For travelers under the Resolution 302 system, the baggage rules of the MSC will apply. For complex itineraries involving multiple checked baggage points, there may be more than one MSC, resulting in the application of differing baggage rules through an itinerary.

For explanation of abbreviations, reference marks and symbols used but not explained hereon, see Page 4.

"Most Significant Carrier (MSC) – IATA Resolution 302 as conditioned by the Agency" means, in this instance, the MSC is determined by applying IATA Resolution 302 methodology as conditioned by the Agency. The Agency's reservation has stipulated that only a single set of baggage rules may apply to any given interline itinerary. The aim of the Agency's reservation is to allow the selecting carrier to use the MSC methodology to determine which carrier's baggage rules apply to an international interline itinerary to or from Canada, while reinforcing the role of tariffs in the determination of which carrier's rules apply.

"Operating Carrier" means the carrier that operates the actual flight.

"Participating Carrier(s)" includes both the Selecting Carrier and Down Line Carriers who have been identified as providing interline transportation to the passenger by virtue of the passenger's ticket.

"Selected Carrier" means the carrier whose baggage rules apply to the entire interline itinerary.

"Selecting Carrier" means the carrier whose designator code is identified on the first flight segment of the passenger's ticket at the beginning of an interline itinerary issued on a single ticket whose origin or ultimate destination is in Canada.

"Single ticket" means a document that permits travel from origin to destination. It may include interline/code-share and intra-line segments. It may also include end-to-end combinations (i.e., stand-alone fares that can be bought separately but combined together to form one price).

"Summary page at the end of an online purchase" means a page on a carrier's Web site which summarizes the details of a ticket purchase transaction after the passenger has agreed to purchase the ticket from the carrier and has provided a form of payment.

"Ultimate ticketed destination" In situations where a passenger's origin is a non-Canadian point and the itinerary includes at least one stop in Canada, as well as at least one stop outside of Canada, if the stop in Canada is the farthest checked point and the stop is more than 24 hours, the ultimate ticketed destination is considered to be Canada.

(A) Applicability

This Rule is applicable to all interline itineraries issued by the Carrier on a single ticket on or after April 1, 2015 whose origin or ultimate ticketed destination is in Canada.

(B) General

For the purposes of interline baggage acceptance:

1. the carrier whose designator code is identified on the first segment of the passenger's interline itinerary will be known as the Selecting Carrier.
2. any carrier who is identified as providing interline transportation to the passenger by virtue of the passenger's ticket will be known as a Participating Carrier.

(C) Baggage Rule Determination by the CarrierChecked Baggage

The Selecting Carrier will:

- a) Select and apply its own baggage rules as set out in its tariff to the entire interline itinerary.

OR

- b) Select the Most Significant Carrier, as determined by IATA Resolution 302 and conditioned by the Canadian Transportation Agency, in order for that carrier's baggage rules, as established in its tariff, to apply to the entire interline itinerary.

The carrier identified by means of (a) or (b) will be known as the Selected Carrier.

Carry-On Baggage

Each Operating Carrier's carry-on baggage allowances (as to number, size and weight of carry-on articles) will apply to each flight segment in an interline itinerary. Notwithstanding, the carry-on baggage charges that will apply to the entire interline itinerary will be those of the Selected Carrier.

(D) Baggage Rule Application by Participating Carrier

 - f. application of baggage allowances and charges (i.e., whether they are applied once per direction or if they are applicable at each stopover point).

If a passenger has been involuntarily denied a reserved seat in case of an oversold flight on Porter Airlines, the Carrier will provide the passenger with:

- (a) a remedy or remedies in accordance with Rule 14(j) above; and
- (b) denied boarding compensation as set forth in this Rule 18 below.

Volunteers and Boarding Priorities

If a flight is oversold (more passengers hold confirmed reservations than there are seats), no one may be denied boarding against his/her will until the Carrier's personnel first ask for volunteers who will give up their reservations willingly, in exchange for such compensation as the Carrier may choose to offer. If there are not enough volunteers, other passengers may be denied boarding involuntarily, in accordance with the Carrier's boarding priority.

In determining boarding priority, the Carrier will consider the following factors:

- whether a passenger is traveling due to death or illness of a member of the passenger's family, or,
- age of a passenger, or
- whether a passenger is an unaccompanied minor, or
- whether a passenger is a person with a disability, or
- the fare class purchased and/or fare paid by a passenger

Compensation for Involuntary Denied Boarding

If you are denied boarding involuntarily on an oversold flight, you are entitled to a payment of "denied boarding compensation" from Carrier unless:

- you are offered accommodations in a section of the aircraft other than specified in your ticket, at no extra charge, (a passenger seated in a section for which a lower fare is charged must be given an appropriate refund).

Amount of Denied Boarding Compensation

Passengers with a confirmed seat on Porter Airlines who are denied boarding involuntarily from an oversold flight are entitled to:

- (a) $200 CAD if the Carrier offers alternate transportation that is planned to arrive at the passenger's destination or first stopover less than two hours after the planned arrival time of the passenger's original flight;
